HSI Industrial Skills

lperez@hsi.com

Linda has more than 25 years' experience leading, facilitating, and supporting compliance operations and engineering efforts in large, grid-management system environments. As Senior Advisory Services Manager, she focuses on compliance issues in the power industry and helps clients facilitate a culture of compliance within their organizations. Linda also has extensive experience with NERC CIP and 693 standards, preparing RSAWs, and writing various compliance policies, procedures, and guidelines. In addition, she has conducted on-site compliance audits and served as an SME.

Linda shared some insights into her career, current position, and past accomplishments below:

When and why did you decide to pursue a career in your field?

I was working for an organization in the Central Mail Remittance department in 1985 when an opportunity opened up for an Engineering Design Technician. It paid $10.50 an hour which was a fortune in 1985.

What do you like best about your job?

I enjoy helping make people and organizations successful.

What project are you most proud of?

Assisting compliance managers who are buried underneath their workload.

How has your job changed over the past few years?

We continue to evolve with industry trends and increased regulatory focus, but our goal is always the same – make the client successful.

Give one word that describes you best.

Organized

What motivates you?

A 'no findings' compliance audit.
